German Consulates in U. S. Ordered Closed by July 10th

State Department Says Their Activities Are "Inimical"

Washington, June 16.—(AP)—The United States today ordered all German consulates closed by July 10 because of activities "inimical to the welfare of this country."

Announcing the action, Sumner Welles, Undersecretary of State, said it did not imply a break in diplomatic relations with Germany and did not affect the diplomatic staff in Washington.

He made the announcement after handing a note to Dr. Wilhelm Tannenber, first secretary of the German embassy, in the absence of Hans Thomson, German charge d'affaires.

The order requires the closing of the German Library of Information and Railway Tourist Bureau and the German Transocean News Agency. It calls for removal of all nationals connected with the consulates and these agencies.

(Transocean is not connected with any American news agency). "It has come to the knowledge of this government," the Welles note said, "that agencies of the German reich in this country, including German consular establishments, have been engaged in activities wholly outside the scope of their legitimate duties."

"These activities have been of improper and unwarranted character."

"They render the continued presence in the United States of these agencies and consular establishments inimical to the welfare of this country."

First Anti-Nazi Action

This was the first action against German consular establishments in this country, although Italian consulates at Detroit and Newark, N. J., were ordered closed some time ago.

The action against the Italian consulates was considered a reprisal for an Italian order requiring the closing of two American consulates in Italy in mid-February.

In another step against Italy, the United States several weeks ago forced the recall of Admiral Roberto Laís, Italian naval attaché in Washington, on the grounds that he was connected with the sabotaging of Italian merchant ships in American ports. Promptly, Italy demanded the recall of Captain William C. Bentley, then assistant military attaché at Rome.

Today's notice to the German government affects scores of consular officials throughout the United States, including Captain Fritz Wiedmann, the German Consul General at San Francisco who is a personal friend of Adolf Hitler.

In making the action known, Welles told his press conference that the government had nothing in mind at this time regarding

Pea Cannery Faces Charges of Price Fixing Conspiracy

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—Sixty-nine persons, firms and organizations were indicted today by a federal grand jury investigating food prices.

The defendants included 31 canning companies and three national canned pea marketing associations.

They were accused of conspiring to fix prices for canned peas in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

The indictment alleged that since 1938 the defendants have agreed upon a acreage reduction plan, determined the annual pack of each canner, suppressed competition among canners and fixed non-competitive prices for canned peas.

Grown in Many States

Indicted were the Canned Pea Marketing Institute, Inc., and Canned Pea Marketing, Inc., listed as associations composed of canners, and Stevenson, Jordan & Harrison, Inc., described as "managerial engineers." The indictment identified them as the organizations which promoted the program.

In addition to these three organizations and the 31 canning companies, the indictment named 35 individual officers, directors, and members connected with the corporate defendants.

The indictment added that peas for commercial canning are grown in many states, including Wisconsin, Washington, Maryland, New York, Utah, Minnesota, Oregon, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

Fred Stanley Seriously Wounded at Home of John Suits Here

Fred Stanley, 26, of Dixon and Sterling, was shot twice Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock at the John Suits home, 1609 First street following a quarrel and reported fight and Suits, after allegedly firing two bullets from a 22 caliber automatic rifle into Stanley's body, summoned police and surrendered.

Patrolmen Harry Jones and Clarence Seagren who responded to the call took Stanley to the hospital and Suits was taken to the city jail.

According to a statement given by eye witnesses to the Sunday afternoon shooting, Stanley went to the home of his former wife, Mrs. Suits yesterday in company with Gerald Clouser, 715 North Broadway, Joliet. The latter remained in the car in front of the Suits home while Stanley was said to have gone to the house.

From reports of witnesses an argument followed during which Suits, ordered Stanley from the premises. The latter is said to have broken a window in the house and to have crawled into the house where he ripped the telephone from the wall when members of the family threatened to summon the police. According to witnesses, Stanley knocked Suits down in the yard during the altercation.

Ignored Warning

Stanley's companion implored the shooting victim to leave the premises. Suits went to his parking

Knappenberger agreed in turn to forward Red Bird's complaint to Washington.

35 Passengers and Crewmen Arrive in So. African Port

Landed in Capetown by British Ship; Vessel Torpedoed May 21

Capetown, Union of South Africa, June 16.—(AP)—Thirty-five survivors from the torpedoed American ship Robin Moor arrived here today in a British ship.

This completed rescue of the 46 persons aboard the ship which was halted May 21 by a submarine, identified by survivors as German, and then sunk by a torpedo and shellfire.

Eleven survivors who reached Recife, Brazil, were leaving for the United States today.

The rescue of the remaining passengers and crewmen should provide additional identification of the U-boat, for the group of 35 includes the Chief Officer of the Robin Moor and the crewmen he took with him by boat to the submarine in response to its summons before the torpedoing.

Four lifeboats in all were lowered by the Robin Moor on short notice before the freighter was sunk.

Those in that boat with 10 seamen and one passenger reached Recife on the Brazilian ship.

The Robin Moor, headed for Capetown with what Washington held to be a noncontraband cargo, was halted by the winking lights of the U-boat's blinker signal at 6 o'clock, Greenwich time, May 21.

Four Americans Aboard

The position was south of the Cape Verde islands, in the Atlantic about midway between Brazil and West Africa. She carried eight passengers, four of whom were Americans. All four were among the group reported reaching Capetown.

"Send a boat with papers. . .," blinked the U-boat's signal.

The Robin Moor asked what ship was making the request and was answered:

"Just submarine."

The freighter lowered a lifeboat in charge of the Chief Officer, who was rowed to the submarine. He carried no ship's papers but identified the American vessel.

The Chief Officer went into the submarine, conferred with the commander and was given 30 minutes for crew and passengers

3 Firemen Die in Blaze in Chicago

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—Three firemen were killed and four were injured today in a blaze which attacked a three-story building in the near northside industrial district.

The flames swept through a structure housing the Chicago Mill & Lumber Company at 940 North Ogden avenue. Fire Commissioner Michael J. Corrigan estimated that the property damage would reach $75,000.

As soon as firemen could enter the smoking building they brought out the bodies of Norris Conlon, Henry Bodenious and George Michalski, fire fighters who were believed to have been overcome by smoke as they took a hose into the flames on the first floor.

About 150 employees of the company, which manufactures wooden containers, reached the street safely.

A 5-11 alarm was rung for the blaze, which sent clouds of smoke over the district, north of the loop. The four injured firemen were reported to have been overcome by the thick smoke.

Dixon Child Falls to Death From Car

Outing of Myron Willey Family Comes to Tragic Ending

Nancy Willey, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Willey, who reside west of Dixon on route 1, was instantly killed Sunday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, when she fell from a moving car on U. S. route 30, a short distance west of the Lee Center spur. The family had spent the afternoon visiting with friends in Mendota and returned home by way of Compton, where they stopped for a short visit.

The father, a carrier at the Dixon post office, was driving west on U. S. route 30 with his family, when Nancy, who was in the rear seat with her mother, in some manner opened one of the rear doors and fell from the car, which was traveling at a speed of about 50 miles an hour. Apparently the lower part of the door struck her across the forehead as she fell, the entire top of her head being crushed.

Death Instantaneous

Her parents picked her up from the paving as soon as the father stopped the car, but death had been instantaneous and the body was brought to the Melvin funeral home in this city. Coroner Frank E. Nangle of Paw Paw conducted an inquest this morning at 10 o'clock, the jury finding that death resulted from a skull fracture.

Nancy was born in Dixon township, May 15, 1937 and is survived by her parents; one sister, Marjorie Lee; and two brothers, Myron Charles and Norman E., all at home. The body was taken from the funeral home to the family residence today. Funeral services will be conducted from the Melvin funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the Rev. W. H. Lewis officiating, and interment will be in Oakwood.

Russo-Nazi Relations Strained London Says; War Flares in Africa

The War Today!

(Telegraph Special Service)
(This daily feature, conducted by Dewitt Mackenzie, is being written in his absence on vacation by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

Tobold interpretations of today's headlines:

British attack in North Africa: This is practical application of Britain's new war plan, expounded only a week ago by Winston Churchill: "Fierce and stubborn resistance, even against heavy odds, even under exceptional difficulties and disadvantages." For two months the formidable axis forces have been astraddle the Egyptian border, completing every preparation for the assault on Suez, deterred only by the scrappy little Tobruk garrison inside their lines. Now the British, reinforced by men and machines from East Africa, have attacked these axis concentrations in force, despite the blazing heat, despite the toll they knew the swarms of German dive bombers would be able to take. By doing so, they may be saving Suez.

British express fear German threat to Russia is a feint: This appears to reflect an attempt by the British leadership to dispel wishful thinking about a German-Russian conflict (incurable British habit) and to prevent any relaxation of preparedness and watchfulness at home. There is solid ground for expecting another German-Russian get-together, probably at Russia's expense. But it also is apparent that Germany is applying tremendous military pressure to Russia in an attempt to get a free hand in the wheat country of the Ukraine and perhaps the oil fields of the Caucuses, if not even more. To the disillusionment of Russia, Hitler is proving again that no country on the borders of the third reich can in the long run maintain complete sovereignty, no matter how much friendship it offers.

Italy freezes U. S. credits as reprisal: This action by Italy, but not Germany, may well forecast a Hitlerian policy of pushing Italy out in front to do the blustering and take the risks in this era of dangerous and explosive relations between America and the axis. The German reaction to axis credit freezing by the United States is feeble so far, and German spokesmen are using the word "unjustified," which must be one of the weakest words in the Nazi vocabulary. Probably the Germans are figuring that Washington will not be so tough with Italy as with Germany. At any rate, the German high command also declared that Nazi air formations raided airports on the British fortified island of Cyprus, 70 miles off the coast of Syria.

Other developments included: 1. Premier Mussolini's government "froze" American bank accounts in Italy, in reprisal for like action taken Saturday against axis holdings in the United States. A Berlin spokesman cautiously termed President Roosevelt's order "unjustified."

2. In the Far East, the Governor General of the Dutch East Indies said his government had notified Tokyo that the Indies rejected "any thought" of being drawn into Japan's proposal for a "new order in East Asia."

3. On the Ethiopian war front, the British reported the surrender of 2,000 Italian troops in the Soddu area.

May Invade Russia

Europe's whispering galleries in the past week have indicated that Adolf Hitler's armies, swinging back from the Balkans to mass along the Soviet Russian frontier, might strike into Russia from Finland.

On the Middle East front, British headquarters reported that heavy fighting developed in the central sector of the allied advance despite British efforts "to avoid unnecessary bloodshed" in the conflict with the Vichy French defenders.

Military dispatches from Beirut told of violent naval actions off the coast of Lebanon, with French planes dive bombing two British destroyers and French warships engaging a British force of two cruisers and four destroyers.

One destroyer was reported badly damaged and set afire in an attack by French naval planes.

Counter-attacking French troops were said to have stopped the British thrust toward Damascus, according to these dispatches.

Outer Defenses of Damascus Fall to British Troops

By The Associated Press

Quiet for weeks, the North African battlefield flamed into action anew today as British troops punched across the frontier into Libya and attacked axis forces in the Gambut sector west of Bardia, 10 miles from the Egyptian border.

Meanwhile, a reliable London source declared that Russo-German relations were rapidly approaching a critical stage where the two nations must either join in a Pan-European economic program or break into open hostilities.

In the Middle East, the French acknowledged that the British had captured Kiseou, 10 miles south of Damascus, to a British column advancing along the Mediterranean coast after capturing the port of Sidon.

On the North African front, the British reported that Imperial vanguards had routed an Italian motorized column in the Gambut area, 40 miles west of the Egyptian border.

See New Offensive

In London, it was indicated that General Sir Archibald P. Wavell, commander-in-chief of the British Army of the Nile, may have launched a new offensive to wrest Libya from the axis.

The German high command said 60 British tanks were destroyed and that a British attack in the Salum area, on the Egyptian-Libyan frontier, "collapsed" under the combined resistance of axis troops and warplanes.

Premier Mussolini's high command also described the battle as raging on the Salum front and asserted that the British, striking "in force" after several days of patrol activity had been "repulsed everywhere."

Hitler's high command credited the Luftwaffe with shooting down 11 British planes.

In the middle East, British and Free French columns were reported to have slashed through key defense positions of Damascus and Beirut, leading the British to predict early capitulation of both capitals in the nine-day-old invasion of Syria and Lebanon.

Nazi Planes Aid French

Nazi warplanes, now openly aiding the hard pressed Vichy French forces, were reported to have sunk a light British cruiser and damaged a heavy cruiser off the Lebanese coast.

The German high command also declared that Nazi air formations raided airports on the British fortified island of Cyprus, 70 miles off the coast of Syria.

Other developments included: 1. Premier Mussolini's government "froze" American bank accounts in Italy, in reprisal for like action taken Saturday against axis holdings in the United States. A Berlin spokesman cautiously termed President Roosevelt's order "unjustified."

2. In the Far East, the Governor General of the Dutch East Indies said his government had notified Tokyo that the Indies rejected "any thought" of being drawn into Japan's proposal for a "new order in East Asia."

Shipyard Workers Defy Government

Vote to Continue Outlaw Strike in West; Other Labor News

(By The Associated Press)

Harvey W. Brown, president of the American Federation of Labor's International Association of Machinists, said today he would go to San Francisco at once to try to persuade striking machinists in shipyards there to return to work in compliance with President Roosevelt's wishes.

The National Mediation Board, balked in its attempts to settle a machinists' strike involving 11 shipyards of the San Francisco Bay area, proceeded today to prepare its recommendations for publication.

The board has no power to enforce these, but Roosevelt has told both management and labor that the American people expect "the impartial recommendations" of the board to be accepted.

Strikers at the yards belong both to the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations. The AFL members voted 585 to 400 yesterday to continue the strike and the CIO contingent went along by a

Advocates Union as Move to Peace

Waterville, Me., June 16.—(AP)—A political union of the United States and members of the British commonwealth of nations with a view to offering immediate peace negotiations to the axis was advocated today by Clarence K. Streit, author.

Speaking at the Colby college 120th commencement at which he was awarded an honorary degree, Streit proposed that the president and congress invite the people of the United Kingdom, Erie, Canada, the Union of South Africa, Australia and New Zealand to form a provisional federal union, "modeled broadly on the United States constitution."

Such a union, he said, could "offer immediately to negotiate a peace with the axis on these terms: no annexations or occupations of foreign territory, no reparations and indemnities, and the settlement by arbitration of all disputes leading to the war that cannot be settled by direct negotiations."

Streit expressed belief that the union would provide "the only way" to defeat the axis without sending an American expeditionary force to Europe.

Discrimination Against Anyone in Defense Production Must Stop; FDR

Washington, June 16.—(AP)—President Roosevelt has ordered the OPM to see to it that defense industries fully utilize the nation's productive manpower without regard to race, religion or national origin.

In a memorandum addressed to William S. Knudsen and Sidney Hillman, OPM directors, the chief executive last night said that "fully qualified" negroes and others were being turned away from the gates of industry on "ground" "entirely unrelated to efficiency and productivity."

"This situation," he declared, "is a matter of grave national importance, and immediate steps must be taken to deal with it effectively."

The president said he had been told that the "discrimination" against negro workers has been nationwide and other minority racial, national and religious groups have felt its effect in many localities.

With "labor stringencies" appearing in many areas, he asserted that in the present emergency it was "imperative that we deal effectively and speedily with this problem" and that he expected the OPM to take "immediate steps to facilitate the full utilization of our productive manpower."

Filibuster Threat Heard in General Assembly's Ranks

Democrats May Try To Talk Chicago Probe Measure to Death

Springfield, Ill., June 16—(AP)—Democratic threats to tie up both houses of the legislature with a filibuster were heard today amid an intensifying inter-party feud over Governor Green's plea that the General Assembly investigate the finances of local governments in Chicago and Cook county.

Reliable reports said Chicago Democrats, who succeeded late last week in filibustering the Senate into an early adjournment, would attempt to extend the legislative blockade to the House, which reconvened this afternoon (1 P. M. CST) for the last two weeks of the 62nd General Assembly's regular session. The Senate reconvenes tomorrow.

Democratic spokesmen have vowed to battle until June 30 adjournment against enactment of the Green-endorsed bill calling for a $100,000 appropriation to finance the GOP investigation. The bill, as introduced by House Speaker Elmer J. Schnackenberg, would set up a committee of legislators to conduct the probe during the interim between this legislative session and the next regular one in 1943.

All of the big Cook county taxing bodies were controlled by Democrats and Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago has taken a personal hand in opposing the Schnackenberg measure in recent caucuses of Democratic legislators.

Governor Green asserted the Schnackenberg bill's enactment would provide a means of conducting a needed study of so-called "peg levy" tax legislation which the local governments in Cook county have requested the General Assembly to enact in recent years.

Indications were that if House Democrats attempt a filibuster today there would be a quick test of its effectiveness. The Schnackenberg bill is at third reading—the passage stage—on the House calendar and could be called up for a final vote this afternoon.

The Republicans have no more than a bare majority of 77 votes in the House, due to the loss of members through illness and death. Consequently, should there be any GOP defections or absentees, the Republicans would need some Democratic support to pass the bill.

The filibuster threat came as a second legislative controversy—that involving the $16,000,000 aid-to-dependent-children bills—ragged to new heights over the weekend.

Legion for Child Aid Bill
State officers of the American Legion joined the Green administration today in urging the legislature to enact the child aid measure which has passed the House and is pending in the Senate.

Governor Green's office announced that William F. Waugh, state Commander of the American Legion, had reported to the chief executive that 90,000 Legionnaires and 50,000 members of the women's auxiliary were "vitality interested" in passage of the children's aid bill.

Waugh announced that "if necessary, delegations will wait on Senators unfriendly to the bill's."

Waugh's statement was seen as an answer to actions of 600 local officials who converged on the Capital en masse last week and threatened political reprisals against legislators favoring the administration-supported legislation.

UNNECESSARY FEDERAL SPENDING MUST STOP

Too much emphasis cannot be placed upon the importance at this time of eliminating all "ordinary" expenditures of the Government that are not absolutely necessary. Since the war emergency, President Roosevelt has repeatedly pledged his administration to practice strict economy and to discontinue "boondoggling" projects and other means of wasteful spending, but he has failed to abide by any such program of economy. For example, the president has urged, in the guise of national defense, the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars on the gigantic St. Lawrence river project. The chief object of this scheme is to build dams for the generation of electric current to be sold in unfair competition with the product of existing investor-owned companies. Congress, too, has failed to practice economy.

"Aunt Em" Dies From Injuries Got in Fall

Chicago, June 16—(AP)—Mrs. Emma Van Alstyne Lanning, 85, whose homespun philosophy as "Aunt Em" made her known to a wide midwestern radio audience, died in a hospital today where she was taken May 30 after suffering injuries in a fall.

In her "Aunt Em" characterization, Mrs. Lanning made her first broadcast (WLS) five years ago. Until three years ago she had resided in Marengo, Ill.

Golden Gypsy.

Two good reasons for calling Eva Gabor, above, "Golden Gypsy" are: 1, her honey hair; 2, Hungarian gypsies taught her to dance. Hollywood is now teaching her to act so you'll be seeing her in the movies.

First Donations to USO Campaign by Dixonites Given

During the first week of the current United Service Organizations' campaign to raise $10,765,000 nationally for the operation of 360 service clubs adjacent to military camps, naval stations and defense industries, Dixon has obtained $78.00 of its quota of $1800, according to Mayor Wm. V. Slothower, chairman.

The fund raising campaign began June 3 and will continue until July 4. Funds will be used to operate recreational centers for service men all over the country. The clubs themselves will be built or acquired and paid for by the government, and turned over to the administration to the U. S. O. Six national agencies, the Y. M. C. A., the National Catholic Conference of Service, the Salvation Army, the Y. W. C. A., the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers Aid Association, are participating in this undertaking.

"The manner in which local citizens have rushed to aid this good cause is very gratifying," Mr. Slothower said. "Quite apparently, folks are very conscious of the emergency of the situation and are really doing their bit towards solving what has become a very serious problem. From reports from other communities in this state and other states of the Union, citizens everywhere are responding with equal interest to assure the success of this vital work."

Far Short of Goal
"While we are still far short of our goal of $1800, it is hoped that our people will continue to express their appreciation and faith in our young soldiers and sailors by contributing to the limit of their capacity during the next three weeks of the campaign. After all, most of us will ultimately see one or another of our loved ones in the service and we want to make sure that the boys get the break they're entitled to."

The U. S. O. program is aimed chiefly at the building and maintenance of the morale of the defense forces. While Army and Navy officials are doing a great job keeping up the spirits of the men in camp, much remains to be done to provide adequate recreational facilities for service men in their leisure hours off the reservation. The U. S. O. service clubs will take care of this by offering men off duty a homey place nearby where they can find the entertainment and relaxation they want.

Contributions to the U. S. O. campaign should be sent to Clyde Lenox, (treasurer) City National Bank building.

Legionnaires of District Adjourn Session Held in LaSalle

LaSalle, Ill., June 16—(AP)—A resolution criticizing state American Legion heads for their support of Governor Green's program to aid dependent children was ruled out of order yesterday at the Legion's Second Division convention.

A spirited discussion concerning the ADC bills came when LaSalle county State's Attorney Taylor E. Wilhelm offered the resolution and asserted that the "Legion again is being used for selfish interests".

The ADC bills, now awaiting senate action after house approval, call for the state welfare department to distribute funds to mothers and guardians of needy children. Currently the mother's pension law is under local administration.

William Waugh, state Legion Commander, declared that state officers were "acting in their official capacity to carry out state convention mandates," adding that Gov. Green was supporting the bills "because he believes in the Legion and the Legion auxiliary."

A resolution opposing the use of American convoys "for any act which might involve us in war" was adopted.

Medals Awarded
The delegates, numbering approximately 800 from 23 northern and central counties, recommended the election of Andrew Brodie of Millington, commander of the 12th district, as the division's next commander. The election will be held at the next state convention.

Certificates of honor and medals were awarded to these men for founding Legion posts: former State Attorney General Oscar E. Carlistrom, Aleo; U. S. Senator Scott W. Lucas, Havana; Everett Dutcher, Rockford (formerly of Dixon); Thomas B. Gorey, Pence R. Orr and A. J. Pasavento, all of Joliet; George R. McConnell, Belvidere; James Batty, Frank Kersting and Irvin McCauley, all of Quincy; Frank J. Harrison, Streator; Grant M. Miles, Peoria, and E. Russell Reeder, Canton.

Mrs. Carol Anderson, St. Charles, and Mrs. Annette Peterson, LaSalle, were elected president and vice president, respectively, of the division's auxiliary.

The convention, which convened Saturday, staged its parade yesterday and first honors for drum and bugle corps were shared by Evanston and Park Ridge, Continental post of Chicago was second and Oak Park and Elgin tied for third.

Passengers March Off Sinking Boat to Their Own Song

Excursion Packet Hits Obstruction As It Nears Home Port

Chester, Ill., June 16—(AP)—Joining in songs led by Hostess Hortense Wilder, 55 passengers and all but one of the crew of 58 trod a shaky stage to haven ashore as the historic river packet Golden Eagle sank in the Mississippi.

Tragedy—an underwater obstruction that punctured the hull—struck the craft, one of the last survivors of the glamorous "show boat" era, Saturday night as it steamed for its home port in St. Louis.

The boat was in midstream north of here; the hour 9 o'clock. Gay excursions, many from Chicago, frolicked at a masquerade dance on one of the three decks. It was the last night of a week's cruise to Sheffield, Ala.

Suddenly there was a jolt, passenger James L. Hvale of Chicago said, and the ship quivered. A rumbling followed. The boat seemed to sway front to rear, then side to side. The lights went out.

Report No Panic
A distress whistle wailed across the waters. But there was no panic, Miss Wilder and negro maids directed passengers to life belts, detoured potential screams to song.

Simultaneously, Capt. William H. (Buck) Leyhe reported, "with water coming in fast, the boat was headed for shore and made a landing. The stage was lowered and the mate ran a line out to a tree. About the time the last passenger was off, the stern of the boat settled."

As it went down in 20 feet of water, a hawser snapped and its backlash struck and killed George Washington Weems, 28, negro cabin boy, who was helping shift the gangplank for the crew to disembark.

All the action was over in 20 minutes. The passengers were brought here for the night.

Veteran Capt. Leyhe said he doubted if the 38-year-old vessel would be salvaged although final decision awaits insurance adjusters.

The Hoosac tunnel in Massachusetts required 25 years to build. It was the first extensive construction of its kind in the United States.

Nephews Contest Will of Uncle Who Cut Them Off With Dollar Each

Springfield, Ill., June 16—(AP)—Edward G. Hunt of Danville today asked the state Supreme court to reverse a Vermilion county Circuit court finding that the will of the late John T. Lawson, who died October 6, 1940, was valid.

Edward Hunt and Ira Hunt, nephews of Lawson, were left one dollar each in the will which divided the remainder of the estate among the Vermilion County Children's Home, St. Elizabeth's hospital and the Lake View hospital, all of Danville.

Hunt charged his uncle had not been competent to make the will.

Output of Nurseries of Illinois Boosted

Springfield, Ill., June 16—(AP)—The department of conservation announced today it would expand its state forest nurseries to step up their output to an estimated 14,000,000 trees next year for reforestation purposes.

Director Livingston E. Osborne said the nursery near Havana in Mason county would be supplied with a new implement building, new overhead irrigation lines and a laboratory.

At the Union county nursery, he said a new green house will be constructed, water mains increased and new irrigation lines established.

The improvements will be made with the aid of the Civilian Conservation Corps, thereby meeting the cost of the program largely with Federal funds, Osborne said.

GARDEN WALK IS SUCCESS; POSSIBLY 1,500 VISITORS TURN OUT FOR SUNDAY TOUR

It's clearly apparent that when returns are all in, following yesterday's June Garden Walk, a sizable sum will be available for the development of Camp John Ralston. Beginning very early in the afternoon, and continuing on through the twilight hour last evening, throngs of visitors (estimated at possibly 1,500 persons) toured the gardens on the itinerary, arranged for a double purpose—to benefit Dixon Girl Scouts and in recognition of Father's Day.

Undaunted by the continuous showers of each day the past week, the sponsors carried out, almost in full, their plans for the garden walk, which the Girl Scout council hopes to make an annual event. Although again visited by showers throughout the afternoon and evening on Saturday, the gardens were beautifully ablom for the occasion, and caused many visitors to linger for minute inspection of the blossoms, shrubs, rock gardens, and pools.

At "Hazelwood"

Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, who has promised to contribute a sum equal to the proceeds of the tour, was greeting hundreds of visitors at "Hazelwood", where the log cabin (built by Governor Charters in 1837), the barn, and cliff house were open. The living room picture window, affording an unforgettable view, high above the Rock river, attracted the eye of all-comers at the cliff house, newest of "Hazelwood's" three homes.

Girl Scout salesgirls added to the day's receipts by selling leed frappe, candy, cake, and hand-made coasters. In fact, the coaster booth reported a "sell-out" early in the afternoon, with only samples remaining from which customers made a choice for future orders. Assisting Mrs. O. H. Martin, in the role of a gypsy fortune teller, were Peter and Justin Dart. Mrs. Walgreen's energetic young grandsons, who are credited with "drumming up" a flourishing trade for that particular booth.

At Reynoldswood

At "Reynoldswood," Mrs. John John G. Ralston, sponsor of Camp Ralston and former regional chairman of the Scout organization, extended a gracious welcome to the visitors, who at one time found their automobiles in a miniature traffic jam, so numerous were the cars on the winding, wooded drives.

It was regretted that the water in the flower-bordered pool was too cool for the swimming exhibit planned by the Scouts, the only part of the afternoon's program that was omitted. At "Reynoldswood", too, the house as well as the beautifully landscaped grounds, was open to guests.

Flower vendors did a rushing business near the pool, and there was also a refreshment table, where a variety of delicious cakes

A Thought for Today

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. —Matthew 6:14.

To love is human, it is also human to forgive.—Plautus.

No Time to Change

Modern war has two distinct phases. One is military. The other is economic. And the deciding weapon in either case will be the belligerent powers' natural resources. It takes coal to keep factory furnaces glowing. It takes oil to provide motive power for planes and armored equipment and fighting ships. It takes metal of all kinds in an incredible quantity to build the weapons and the machines which produce the weapons. It takes abundant electric power to keep industries producing on a wartime basis. And the extent of a nation's natural resources determines its position as a trading power—and so determines to a very large extent what its diplomatic influence shall be.

The United States is singularly blessed by nature with the principal natural resources—metals, petroleum, coal, water-power. Second, and equally important, under the private enterprise system we have developed these natural resources to an extent unrivaled anywhere else on earth. The American tradition of private initiative has borne magnificent fruits for all the people. And it is this tradition which must be maintained if this country is to achieve its full strength both as an arsenal of democracy, and as a free nation where every man may succeed and prosper and serve to the very limit of his abilities, ambitions and energies.

There are those who would now use "national defense" as an excuse to have the government develop our natural resources—who would, in a word, socialize them. We have examples to indicate what would follow if that happened. Russia is rich in natural resources. Yet the Russian standard of living, after more than 20 years of socialism, remains at rock-bottom, and Russian production is notoriously low, wasteful and inefficient. Is this the kind of political philosophy the American people wish to follow?

The industries which turn our natural resources to productive use will cooperate to the limit with government now and in the future. They will show the world that a free America, working under a free enterprise system, is stronger than dictatorship, and that free men will out-produce slaves. This is no time to change a system which has met and conquered every menace of the past, and which today is gathering all of its vast resources to meet the menace of the present.

Fifteen Years to Cork

California forestry specialists are going forward with placement of 10,000 cork oak seedlings among farmers who will promise to plant 50 trees each, and take care of them. Experiments have shown that the cork oak will grow well in certain parts of California, and produce bark equal to the Spanish and Portuguese trees.

But it takes 15 years to grow a cork oak to the point where cork may be stripped from it. In order for this plan to have helped to avoid today's shortage of cork, somebody would have to have thought of it 15 years ago and had the courage to go ahead with it. If he had, he would probably have been denounced as a visionary and a fanatic.

Today and its crises force us to strain every eye toward tomorrow.

News Behind THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., Reproduction in Whole or in Part Strictly Prohibited)

Washington, June 15—The stories sifting through Nazi and Russian censorship about a Hitler drive into the Ukraine drew a serious second thought from officials here. These sounded off-hand like the same old game with which Hitler fooled Chamberlain. Every rumor of Moscow-Berlin discussion since this war began has been discredited by subsequent events. It could have been just some more good propaganda to embarrass Mr. Roosevelt's cooperative campaign with labor leaders to purge their communist ranks, or otherwise soothe the ire of anti-communist elements.

But the plain military fact is Hitler's best possible next military move would be just exactly this one.

To strike down through Syria directly at the Suez would bring the Nazi line of supplies directly across the path of British battle-ships. A Syrian campaign would be extremely difficult for the Nazis to sustain.

The other prong of the Nazi pincers clasp at the Suez from Libya is melting in heat over 100 degrees. Hitler always likes to do the improbable, but a tank drive in heat up to 120 degrees or over is a little too improbable to warrant his interest. Furthermore the British General Wavell has Ethiopia cleaned up, and is well-fixed.

This leaves the only inviting road for Nazi action directly down into the rich wheat fields of the Ukraine directly toward the equally rich oilfields of Baku—a goal worth accomplishing, by peaceful agreement or otherwise.

Note—This much has been certain for several days: Large German troop concentrations have been evident in both Finland and Norway and the Nazi forces in Rumania have been greatly strengthened.

Wait until you see the casualty lists from Syria before deciding how great is the battle there. The British schedule of attack called for occupation of Damascus and Lebanon as far back as last Wednesday, but the delay may have been caused by peace negotiations rather than resistance.

It would surprise few authorities here if the French were still putting up enough of a struggle to prevent reprisals from Berlin. The opportunity has been allowed defending generals in wars before to know what spots were to be hit, so they could get their men out of the way. Useless killing would be caused otherwise.

If the German plan of attack is looking toward the Ukraine, they don't care anyway.

Wendell Willkie will not be head of the school which is to be a West Point of government service. Negotiations were conducted with him by those who have the idea of turning the Tome School of Maryland into such an institution next fall, as reported in this column June 6. The negotiations have fallen through. Willkie was not interested.

The OPM is tackling things now so fast and furiously that occasionally it even surprises itself. Shortly after an official announcement was made that magnesium production would be expanded from around 40,000,000 pounds a year to the unbelievable total of 400,000,000 pounds, inquirers approached raw materials experts of OPM to ask how it was going to be done.

"Why that's silly," they were informed. "No such expansion is contemplated and could not be accomplished."

The inquirers had to produce the official announcement from headquarters to prove it was going to be.

GOD KEEP OUR FLAG

Men gave the red from the blood, bravely shed,
For the stripes of Old Glory above.
God gave the red from the blood Christ shed
That these men might know of His love.
God bless our banner and the living and dead.
God keep our flag ever bright and red.

Men gave the white from purity and right
For the flag that we ever adore.
God gave the white from a life lived aright
That men might live evermore.
God bless our banner and our country's might.
God keep our flag ever pure and white.

Men gave the blue from lives that were true
For Old Glory's starry field.
God gave the blue from a life given for you
Who will to His Son humbly yield.
God bless our banner and our freedom too.
God keep our flag ever true and blue.

Three Men Held For Beating, Robbing Farmer

McLeansboro, Ill., June 16—(AP)—Sheriff C. W. Johnson said today three men were held in jail here in connection with the robbery and beating Friday of Billie Williams, 64-year-old Hamilton county farmer, and approximately $1,900 of the $3,200 loot had been recovered.

Charges of robbery and assault were filed against George Brown, 38, and Williamson Harrison, 37, both of Harrisburg, and a charge of conspiracy to rob Williams was filed against Elwood Campbell, a cousin and neighbor of the victim. Sheriff Johnson said Campbell admitted he told Brown about Williams' carrying large sums of money while they were serving sentences at the Vandalia state penal farm in 1939 and they had a further discussion at Harrisburg recently.

Brown confessed participation in the robbery and surrendered $1,700 and a car he had purchased with the loot, Johnson said, but Harrison denied all implication in the robbery.

People's Column

Dear Reader:—Did you ever stop to think that the Townsend National Recovery Plan is for you? And that it will place the American government on a pay as you go basis in a very short time? It will not require any bond issues or new money.

The plan will bring about adequate buying power to all people by giving steady jobs at good pay to all able-bodied people. This will create good homes, happy families. This will come through the issuance of annuities of equal amounts to all persons sixty years of age and over.

The annuities will be derived from a 2 percent tax on incomes of all who earn $250 a month and over, collected by the government and pro-rated to all persons of sixty and over who can qualify. These annuities must be spent each month. Through this forced spending, the turnover will increase each month.

It is figured that these annuities will start at about $50 between $50 and $150 and will increase as the turnover increases, from forced spending, until they may reach $200. All above this amount will go to pay off the national debt.

The plan will give security to the elders and opportunity to the young and to all people. The plan will better every person's condition, it matters not what their condition is. It is humanitarian. It will cause a good will feeling in every person to help lift up the other fellow. This plan is founded upon Christian ethics.

A better world to live in, filled with loving kindness, eliminating envy, malice, big headedness. Preferring others before self. And peace to the world.

You can have such a world to live in. Do you want it? Then act now. Did you ever stop to think of the millions who have no opportunity and cannot help themselves? They are your brothers and sisters. You can help them by writing your Congressman and Senators to work and vote for the enactment of the Townsend Plan which will immediately change the whole picture and bring permanent prosperity to our country and create an impenetrable line of defense both from without and within.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God the Preserver of Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 15.

The Golden Text was, "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms" (Deuteronomy 33:27).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God; in him will I trust. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust; his truth shall be thy shield and buckler" (Psalms 91: 1, 2, 4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness. All that really exists is the divine Mind and its idea, and in this Mind the entire being is found harmonious and eternal" (p. 151).

New York, June 16.—(AP)—For the first time since Joe Louis began to chop down assorted heavyweight stock and carve it into convenient sizes, the folks have changed their tune from "we believe you" to "you gotta show us." A majority of them still think he's going to belt Billy Conn around in the Polo Grounds Wednesday night and brush off the 15th challenge to his heavyweight crown. A crowd of some 40,000 will watch the fun after contributing to a neat game of $500,000 or so.

But as Louis and the cocky kid from Pittsburgh polished up their shots and their speed today in final brief sparring sessions at their training camps, even some of Joe's sincerest boosters were willing to acknowledge for the first time that he won't have any minutes to waste doing it on this occasion. They know that his best chance of knocking the stuffing out of the Smokey City's glamor boy lies in catching Conn before he's warmed up.

And Bomber Knows It

No one knows that better than the Bomber himself. All his training has been pointed toward a repetition of the fast fox-trot he put in on Max Schmeling in their second fight. He has concentrated all his sparring along one line—rushing his punch absorbers into a corner and then dealing dynamite off his right arm.

He has told this corner just that. Yet I don't think he'll catch the little man that quickly or with one punch. That's why I pick Conn to win the decision, thus becoming the 16th ruler since Sullivan in the royal heavyweight line.

But although he has slowed 'way down since the night he sent Der Moxie to a hospital in 2½ minutes, and his guns no longer pack the shells they once loaded, it is conceivable that Joe may still be red-hot andarin' for this one effort. He still can hurt any man he hits, but if he lets Conn escape for as much as five rounds, the chances are he can cash in his checks.

SWING SESSION

Atlanta, June 16.—(AP)—Golf Pro Billy Wilson of Atlanta wonders if it pays to teach a dub how to shoot.

He took a pupil to the practice tee and worked tediously to develop his drive. After the dub worked up to about 200 yards, Wilson leaned over to pick up some stray tees. The pupil, concentrating on his swing, didn't see him.

P. S. They carried Wilson away unconscious.

"I don't blame him a bit," said Wilson later. "He was doing what I told him to."

ENTRIES OWNED BY MOUNT CARROLL COUPLE SCORE HEAVILY IN HORSE SHOW

Hinsdale, Ill., June 16.—(AP)—Entries owned by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Campbell of Mount Carroll, Ill., scored heavily in the Hinsdale horse show which ended its two day run yesterday.

Their Masters Fanny took first in the class for single hackney ponies and then teamed with Skirbeck Flame to repeat in the event for pairs. Skirbeck Flame took third in the single pony class.

Anacacho Diamond, another Campbell horse, scored third in the three gaited state championship.

Intruder, a six year old black gelding owned by William J. Trevelian, Freeport, won first in the fine harness class. Another entry from Freeport, Primrose Princess, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Best, scored third in the same class and fourth in the five gaited saddle horse stake.

MICHIGAN GOLFER FAVORED TO WIN BIG TEN TOURNEY

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—Ben Smith, Michigan's brilliant sophomore, has been tabbed as the "golfer to beat" in the Big Ten championship meet Wednesday and Thursday at the University of Chicago's touch Mill Road course. Smith earned his top ranking with two victories over Billy Gilbert of Ohio State, the 1940 conference champion, during the dual meet season. Others favored to give Smith and Gilbert a battle for the individual crown include Alex Welsh and John Holmstrom of Illinois and Burleigh Jacobs of Wisconsin.

Michigan and Illinois rate as the strongest contenders for the team title now held by the Cham-paign squad.

Knacks Defeated By Maytown, 3 to 1, in Sunday Mixup

DIXON GETS ONLY THREE HITS WITH ROCKFORD TO AID

New York Team Is Now Hotter Than Harlem Swing Band

Although four Knacks players (Rucker, Zera, Windmiller and Prestegard) didn't show up for the game with Maytown here yesterday afternoon, Manager Hi Emmert certainly had plenty of players to choose for a complete roster. In fact, he had a whole team—from Rockford! It was one of the most confusing Sabbaths in many a moon and to add to the bewilderment, the Knacks lost to Maytown, 3 to 1.

A Rockford team, under the impression that the Knacks had booked them for yesterday, came trouping into town only to find that Maytown had the same claim on the locals. With the absence of four local players, Manager Emmert selected four from the Rockford club to fill in the lineup.

Three-Hit Pitching
Before the sad afternoon came to a close, the Knacks had faced the pitching of Horzen (of De-Pue) and had collected only three hits!

Maytown took the lead with one run in the first inning when Schultz was safe on a fielder's choice and scored on a double by Michel.

Two runs scored for the visitors in the second. Drew singled over shortstop and went to third on Horzen's drive to right field and scored later on a fielder's choice as Friel took first. Friel advanced on an error and scored on Schultz hit.

Dixon scored its only run in the last of the seventh when Copp singled to right field and scored on an error by the left fielder. Kuhn got the third hit for Dixon in the eighth but was nabbed on a peg from catcher to second. The other hit for Dixon was made by Matthews in the first inning on a single to center field, but he failed to collect.

Keegan was on the mound for the Knacks and gave off nine hits, walked two and struck out six. Horzen in an excellent mound job whiffed 10, allowed only three hits and walked four.

CLAYTON HEAFNER WINS MAHONING GOLF TOURNEY

Girard, O., June 16.—(AP)—Clayton Heafner, a husky southerner who weathers storms like a sailor, floated into the front ranks of the nation's top golfers today with the tide of victory in the $5,000 Mahoning Valley open.

Six strokes behind when the sharpshooters passed the halfway mark in the 72 hole classic, the 26 year old Linville (N. C.) plowed through mud and water to submerge par by four and win the tournament with a sizzling 276. It was his first triumph in three years of competition on "the circuit."

State Hospital Defeats Amboy Junior Legion

A completed ball game would have been a miracle in these parts last week when it rained nearly every day, and a surprise down-pour halted the Saturday afternoon tilt at the State Hospital where the hosts' all-stars defeated Amboy Junior Legion, 6 to 4.

The game was called in the first half of the seventh because of the rain.

Cohen and Wilkie did the hurling for the hospital team and allowed only four hits. Wilkie in five innings fanned four and Cohen one in one inning. Neither permitted any base on balls.

Of the six hits credited to the winners Mitchell got the only extra base hit with a two bagger.

Becker did the chucking for the Amboy club and struck out six, allowed six hits and walked none. Alexander of Amboy was credited with two doubles.

Each team made two earned runs apiece.

DAHLGREN CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY BY GOING TO CUBS

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—Ellsworth (Babe) Dahlgren, veteran first baseman, celebrated his birthday yesterday by swapping uniforms.

The light-hitting but fancy-fielding Dahlgren, who was 29 years old yesterday, was purchased by the Chicago Cubs from the Boston Braves for an undisclosed sum.

The Braves acquired Dahlgren last spring from the New York Yankees where he had handled first base for two seasons.

In a subsequent transaction the Braves purchased Cather Al Montgomery from Tulsa, Cub farm in the Texas league.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, June 16.—(The Special News Service)—Miller Chuck Fenske has been promoted from private to private first class at Camp Shelby (Miss.) and given a rotating, to boot. He now is assistant athletic director for the 135th Medical Regiment (Wis.) which he joined last April.

For the life of us we can't see why, but plenty of people around this man's town are giving Billy Conn a better-than-fair chance to become the heavyweight champion of the world next Wednesday night.

Today's sports quiz: Why do baseball historians call 1925 the "year without an equal?" (answer later) ... They had better get Zeke Bonura out of that army. His Minneapolis pals blew five straight just like that and muffed the league lead.

BELIEVE-IT-OR-NOT—

Here's an odd play ... The Danville and Martinville teams were playing down in Virginia ... Shortstop Ayvazion of Martinville hit the ball to Pitcher Bob Durham ... In attempting to field it, Durham kicked the ball on the fly back to Catcher Daniels who, in turn, threw to first for the put-out.

Forget that stuff about Greyhound being lame. Trainer Sep Palin says his great trotter is as good as ever ... The "guys and dolls" of Broadway, made famous by Damon Runyan in movies and stories, will honor Damon with a midnight broadcast tonight just before his latest picture, "Tight Shoes," is previewed at the Ziegfeld theater ... Sports quiz answer: Because it's the only season in National League history in which not a single ball game ended in a tie.

FDR's Youngest Son Begins Active Service

Boston, June 16—(AP)—John Roosevelt, the President's youngest son, went into active service today as an ensign in the navy.
He was assigned to a three-month course in the naval supply corps school at the Harvard business school.
Another young reserve corps ensign in the class of 400 is Joseph D. Kennedy, Jr., son of the former United States ambassador to Great Britain.
The President's three other sons, James, Elliot and Franklin, Jr., are officers in the marines, army air corps and navy, respectively.

Major Legislation in Defense Plans Encounters Delay

Opposition to Couple of Proposals Seen as Developing

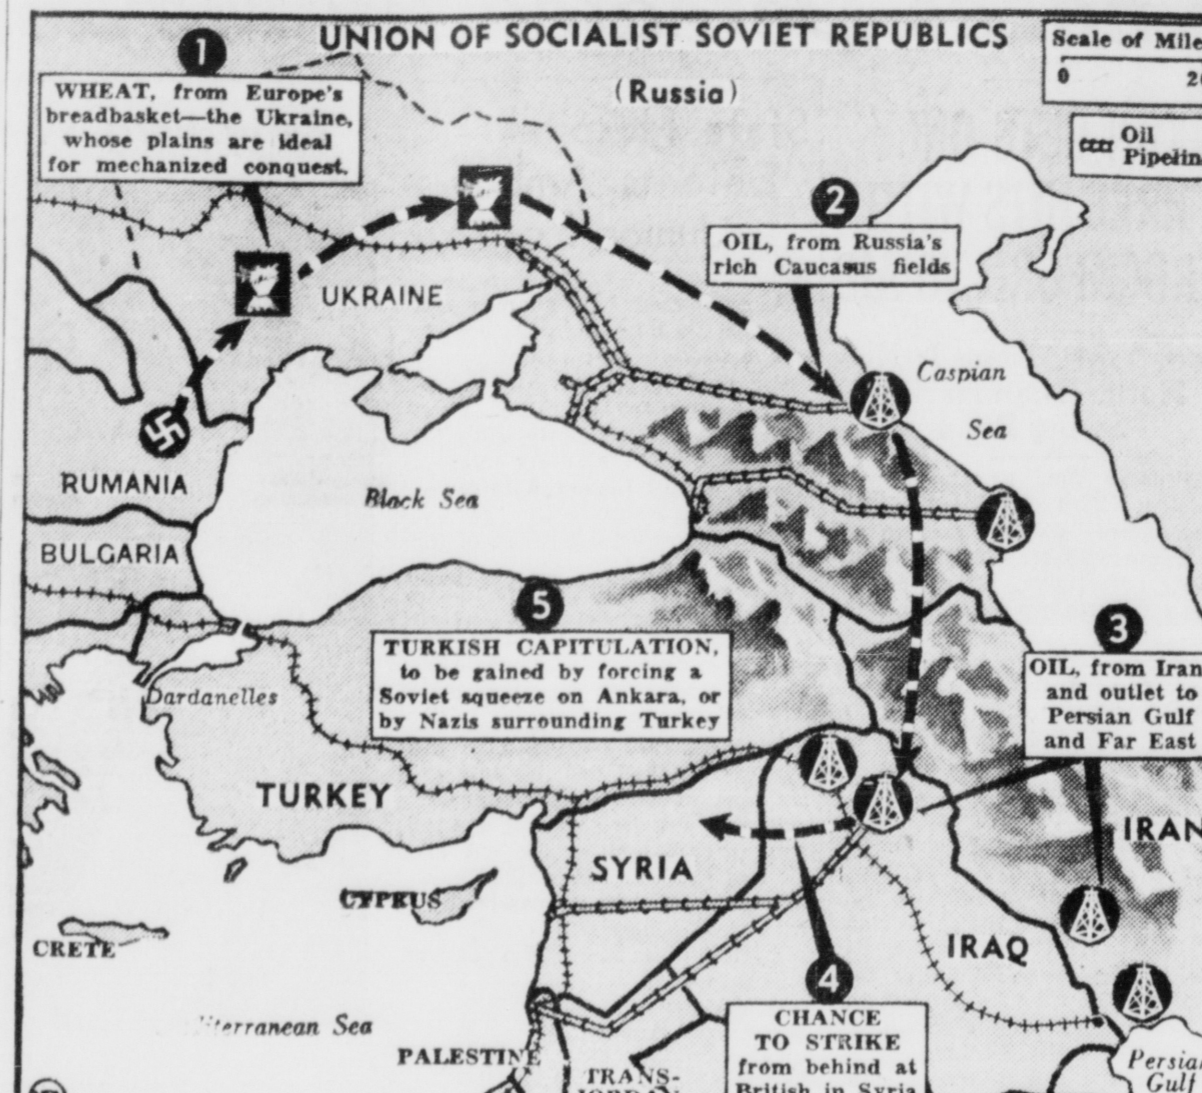

Washington, June 16—(AP)—The threat of delay today beset two major pieces of defense legislation — one for lowering the maximum training age in the selective service act, and the other for empowering the government to take over industries where arms production was affected or menaced by strikes, lockouts or other causes.
The administration-backed plan for making 27 years the top age limit for military service, instead of the present 35 years, was reported to have encountered formidable opposition from house members.
Chairman May (D-Ky) said the house military committee would be in "no hurry" in considering this senate-approved measure which would permit the president to defer active service of registrants who reach their 25th birthday before July 1 of this and subsequent years without having been called into the army.

Many Older Men Enlist

The senate military committee, meanwhile, made public testimony by Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, deputy director of selective service, disclosing that 52 per cent of the men called for active duty in the ages from 31 through 35 had been rejected for physical disabilities.
Protracted disagreement in the house committee on the age limit measure would also have the effect of holding up house consideration on the proposal of Senator Connally (D-Texas) for empowering the government to take over plants where defense production was threatened.
The Connally measure was passed by the senate as an amendment to the bill calling for the lower selective service age limit. The military committee approved the Connally proposal Friday, and also accepted some drastic amendments offered by Rep. Harness (R-Ind). Final action on these, however, was deferred until today when further changes were to be considered.

Five Prizes Conquest of Russia Would Net Germany

Russia seems due for a dish of conquest, either diplomatic or military, from her strong neighbor Germany, now reported massing troops on the Nazi-Soviet frontier from the Baltic to the Black Sea. Map shows five prizes Germany might gain by sending her troops across southern Russia.

The British gave a different picture.
British Picture
Allied troops were said to be claiming down on Damascus from two sides less than five miles from the city's gates, while French troops defending Beirut were forced out of Sidon and back to a line only 12 miles from the Lebanese capital.
Sidon, the French reported, fell before the combined pounding of land forces and British warships offshore and the British said another column driving inland from captured Sidon had taken Djezzine, 12 miles to the east.

Associated Press correspondent

Edward Kennedy said that this column—made up of Australians reinforced by several British regiments—intended to force its way up the Litani river valley to drive a wedge between Damascus and Beirut, headquarters of the French general Henri Dentz.
The French position at Kiseuse, before which the attackers have been stalled for several days, also fell yesterday, the British said. The French denied it and made no acknowledgement of the loss of Djezzine, although acknowledging that the situation in that sector was "confused".
Britons Suspect Veil
Reports of an imminent break between Germany and soviet Russia continued to engross Britons, who were becoming convinced that the talk and the troop movements were designed to veil a new blow at Britain.
The News Chronicle's Ankara correspondent said travelers from Hungary and Rumania reported the odds are "five to one" German will invade Russia within a fortnight, but the Daily Herald commented: "It is not Russia but the British Commonwealth which dominates Hitler's dream of conquest".
The war at sea had no letdown during the week-end. The British announced the loss of their 50th destroyer—the new 1,690 ton Jersey—but claimed they sank a 6,000-ton supply ship off the Dutch coast.
The Germans said they sank 10 British merchant ships totalling 50,000 tons in the Atlantic, five by air attack and five recently by submarine.

Danish Ships Taken Over

The United States, meanwhile, placed on the active service list six Danish ships, the first of a refugee fleet of 84 foreign vessels taken into protective custody in American waters. The remainder, including 28 Italian and two German, will be taken over formally under new legislation as fast as possible, the Maritime Commission said.
The Germans said Britain's total shipping losses thus far in the war amounted to nearly 12,000,000 tons, or more than the toll during the entire World War.
The war in the air went on, too. British bombers attacked several cities in northern and western Germany during the night and there was light, scattered German air activity over England.
In the Far East, U. S. Ambassador to Japan, Joseph C. Grew, personally delivered to Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka a sharp note of protest against yesterday's Japanese bombing of Chungking in which bombs fell in the American safety zone and narrowly missed the U. S. gunboat Tutuila.
Horse population of the U. S. reached a peak in 1910 with 9,823,113. In 1940 the total had decreased to 10,086,971.

ed car and obtained the rifle and again ordered Stanley to leave. The witnesses stated that Stanley walked onto the yard toward Suitts as the latter threatened to shoot. Two bullets from the rifle entered Stanley's body before the rifle jammed, and fell to the ground. Suitts was reported to have summoned police from the home of a neighbor, his telephone being out of commission, and Stanley's companion carried the shooting victim to the parked car.
Suitts was standing in the yard holding the rifle when police arrived and took him in custody. State's Attorney Morey Pires was informed of the shooting by the police and an investigation was begun immediately. Late reports from the Dixon public hospital were to the effect that Stanley's condition was quite critical. One of the bullets was reported to have passed through his body and the second to have lodged in the intestines.
Suitts was removed to the county jail last evening where he was being held pending the outcome of the investigation.

vote of 359 to 56.
Both want $1.15 an hour and double pay for overtime. They have been offered $1.12 and time and a half.
The strike has held up a $500,000 ship building program.
Better news for government agencies seeking to prevent delays in defense production was the action of 33 locals of the CIO Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers who ratified a two year agreement designed to prevent labor strikes in 55 Atlantic coast shipyards.
Lumber Workers Return
The agreement provides for a basic hourly wage of $1.12 for skilled mechanics; adjustments for changes in the cost of living; higher pay for night workers; and no strikes or lockouts. The present basic wage for the mechanics is $1 an hour.
Delegates representing 22,000 striking lumber workers voted at Olympia, Wash., Saturday to go back to work at 53 camps and mills. They agreed to accept 7 1/2 cents an hour raise, making the basic wage 75 cents; vacations with pay and a promise by the operators to recommend that new workers join the CIO union.
Robert P. Patterson, Undersecretary of War, announced troops would be withdrawn within a few days from the North American Aviation Company plant at Inglewood, Calif. The army took it over last week to end a stubborn strike by CIO's United Automobile Workers of America.
CIO unionists employed by the city of McKeesport, Pa., working in garages and handling garbage removal and maintenance of sewers, streets and water mains, struck this morning. A union leader said about 175 men walked out because the city failed to grant a demand for union recognition and because of dissatisfaction with wage increases granted last week.

He asserted also that the step had no relation to the sinking of the American merchant ship Robt. Moore which survivors said was torpedoed by a German submarine.
The closing of the German consulates and other agencies, Welles said, had been under consideration for some time.

mans are playing safe and seeing, first, what happens as a result of Italy's action. It is likely, also, that freezing of American credits in Italy will bag more cash than it would in Germany; United States enterprise has had much longer going in Germany for a long time.

Nazis Study Effect of Freezing of Credits

Berlin, June 16—(AP)—Authorized Germans declared today that the freezing of German and Italian funds in the United States was regarded in Wilhelmstrasse as unjustified but considerable time might elapse before there was any official reaction to the move.
Visibly irked by the American measure, a spokesman said, "We have been making payments promptly on Dawes and Young plan loans." (These were floated in the United States after the World War to help Germany pay reparations.)
Authorized sources said the entire question was being studied carefully—both as to effects of the American measures and possible German counter measures.
During the World War, Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, famous contralto, had two sons enlisted in the American army, and one son serving in the German army.
Each persons in the U. S. accounted for the consumption of 87.4 gallons of milk in 1939.

Knights of Columbus—There will be a meeting of the Knights of Columbus this evening at 8 o'clock at the K. of C. home. There will be an election of officers and all members are urged to be present.
Baldwin Auxiliary—Baldwin auxiliary, U. S. W. V., will entertain the camp members with a scramble supper in the G. A. R. hall at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Church Societies

Sunshine Class—Members of the Sunshine class of St. Paul's Lutheran church will meet at the church at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.
Homecoming—Members of the Pine Creek Ladies' Aid society are announcing a homecoming picnic for Wednesday at the church. A program will follow the scramble luncheon.

Life
We can't have life just as we want it. There is always something wrong—Flies that settle in the ointment—jarring notes that spoil the song. Always something to complain of—always someone in the way—sudden storms and clouds and shadows even on the brightest day.
Well, that's Life! That's how God planned it. That's the way it seems to run. Not all sweet, but not all bitter. Not all work, but not all fun. Don't expect it to be perfect—Take the happy with the sad—Make the best out of the worst—and take the good things with the bad.

Tax Payments in Cook County Under Probe

Chicago, June 16.—(AP)—The state's attorney's office has begun a general investigation of personal property tax payments in Cook county after the arrest of a clerk in the county treasurer's office on a charge of embezzling more than $8,000.

The clerk, John L. Fitzsimmons, 58, was accused of embezzling money given him for payment of tax judgments owed by a foundry equipment concern.

Fitzsimmons was released on $5,000 bond pending arraignment in Felony court Tuesday.

John Phillips, assistant state's attorney, said that Fitzsimmons denied taking the funds and contended that he had turned them over to a cashier in the treasurer's office whose name he did not remember.

Phillips seized the office records for the years 1933, 1934 and 1935 for use in his investigation.
